

She has her mom's hair.

Her dad's eyes.

And drugs from grandma's medicine cabinet.

LOCK YOUR MEDS.

Medicine cabinets can become an unintended source for drug misuse and a means for suicide attempts.

- Monitor all your prescription medications.
- Store your prescription medications in a safe place.
- Dispose of unused, unwanted or expired Rx drugs. Secure drop boxes available, 24/7.

Count It! Lock It! Drop It!®

Don't Be An Accidental Drug Dealer

Dispose of Rx Medicines Safely! Use Authorized Drop Boxes.

ACCEPTED

Prescription medications accepted in any dosage form, in sealed clear plastic bag.

Secure Drop Boxes in Southern Providence County located at Local Police Departments, the RI State Police Barracks and all 24-hour CVS Pharmacies.

NOT ACCEPTED

- Needles (Sharps)
- Thermometers
- Aerosol Cans
- Inhalers
- Lotions/Creams
- Hydrogen Peroxide
- Bloody/Infectious Waste
- IV Bags
- Over-the-Counter Medicines
- Personal Care Products
- Empty Containers/Plastic Bottles
- Packaging

Tri-County Community Action Agency
Southern Providence County
Regional Coalition
Cranston • Johnston • North Providence • Scituate • Smithfield

For more information on Rx safety, scan this QRC or visit our website at spcregionalpreventioncoalition.org

